

Creation's Hymn

(Die Ehre Gottes aus der Natur)

English version by Patrick Rooke

L.van Beethoven
arr. Gwyn Arch

Maestoso

Tenor 1 f Re - joice in this world that God has cre - a - ted. Be - hold His

Tenor 2 f Re - joice in this world that God has cre - a - ted. Be - hold His Baritone f Re - joice in this world that God has cre - a - ted. Be - hold His Bass f Re - joice in this world that God has cre - a - ted. Be - hold His

Maestoso

Piano ff f

9

p cresc. work; its glo - ries a bound. Give thanks for each day, al - ive with won - ders. So much to

p cresc. work; its glo - ries a bound. Give thanks for each day, al - ive with won - ders. So much to

p cresc. work; its glo - ries a bound. Give thanks for each day, al - ive with won - ders. So much to

p cresc. work; its glo - ries a bound. Give thanks for each day, al - ive with won - ders. So much to

p cresc.

17

praise, am - aze, as - tound. The hills, the plains and the val - leys de praise, am - aze, as - tound. The hills, the plains and the val - leys de

praise, am - aze, as - tound. The hills, the plains and the val - leys de

praise, am - aze, as - tound. The hills, the plains and the val - leys de

pp

24

light us, the stars that fill the vel - vet sky. Re - joice in light us, the stars that fill the vel - vet sky. Re - joice in

light us, the stars that fill the vel - vet sky. Re - joice in

light us, the stars that fill the vel - vet sky. Re - joice in

cresc. f

cresc. f

cresc. f

cresc. f

cresc. pp f